Want to use your military training to find a civilian job? Select your branch of military service. Enter the military code or title and find matching civilian careers.

Three more ways to search careers:

Bright Outlook careers have lots of job openings now or will in the near future or are new and emerging.

Interest Browse lets you browse careers by six primary interest areas. Read a brief description of each interest and then explore related careers.

Job Prep groups together careers that need the same level of experience, education, and training.

Want to find a career based on your interests and education? Answer some questions about what you like to do using the O*NET Interest Profiler. You will get a list of careers matching your interests and education that you can explore.

My Next Move for Veterans (www.mynextmove.org/vets) is a website created by the National Center for O*NET Development for the U.S. Department of Labor, Employment and Training Administration for U.S. veterans who are current job seekers. The interactive tool helps vets learn about their career options. The site has tasks, skills, salary information, job listings, and more for over 900 different careers. Veterans can find careers through keyword search; by browsing industries that employ different types of workers; or by discovering civilian careers that are similar to their job in the military. Veterans can also take advantage of the O*NET Interest Profiler, a tool that offers personalized career suggestions based on a person’s interests and level of work experience.
